

REGISTER NOW!

Fortin Consulting & MPCA present Smart Salting Workshop

*Funding for this workshop is provided by MPCA through a grant from US EPA, Section 319 Nonpoint Source Management Fund.

Topics of the Workshop

- How to gauge weather conditions
- Best practices for storing materials
- Understand proper application methods
- How to calibrate equipment
- De-icing and anti-icing methods
- Environmental impacts
- Using sustainable practices

Smart Salting: Parking Lots & Sidewalks

Wednesday, September 16th

Live Virtual Webinar: 8 AM to 1:30 PM

Registration: FREE

Benefits of Attending

- Property owners
- Property Managers
- Private winter maintenance contractors
- City Park departments
- Maintenance staff from school, colleges, etc.
- Cost savings related to salt usage and maintenance
- Protect the environment and water resources
- Receive a manual to reference back and forth
- Earn Professional Development Hours to maintain certifications
- Become MPCA Smart Salting Certified –listed on MPCA website

Target Audience

Hosted by The City of Hutchinson

For more details or to register contact John Paulson at 320-234-5682 or jpaulson@ci.hutchinson.mn.us

